

To the FCC and others:

Wireless Broadband Service companies are providing a very good service and would not be able to do this with this additional tax. They are providing service to communities and schools for much less than the telephone and cable companies. This tax would eliminate this. Please think this through. Thank you. Chris Currie